

Webinar on Observation of 5th Ayurveda Day, 13.11.2020: Embassy of India, Berne observed 5th Ayurveda Day on 13.11.2020 with organisation of a Webinar with the theme 'Ayurveda for COVID 19'. The webinar received enthusiastic participation. Presentations included on basics of Ayurveda, integration with Modern Medicine, and Ayurveda Tourism.

Observation of 5th Ayurveda Day

Observation of 5th Ayurveda Day

Ayurveda in der Schweiz

Anerkannt als Komplementärmedizin mit 2 Berufsbildern mit eidgenössischem Diplom:

- Naturheilpraktikerin für Ayurveda Medizin
- Komplementärtherapeutin für Ayurveda
- Ernährungsberatung
- Massagen und weitere Therapien
- Pancakarma: Detox-Kuren mit Ausleitungsverfahren
- Ayurveda Heilmittel
- Yoga, Meditation, Achtsamkeit

Observation of 5th Ayurveda Day

Ayurveda:

- Observations in COVID management
- Integrative Medicine opportunities

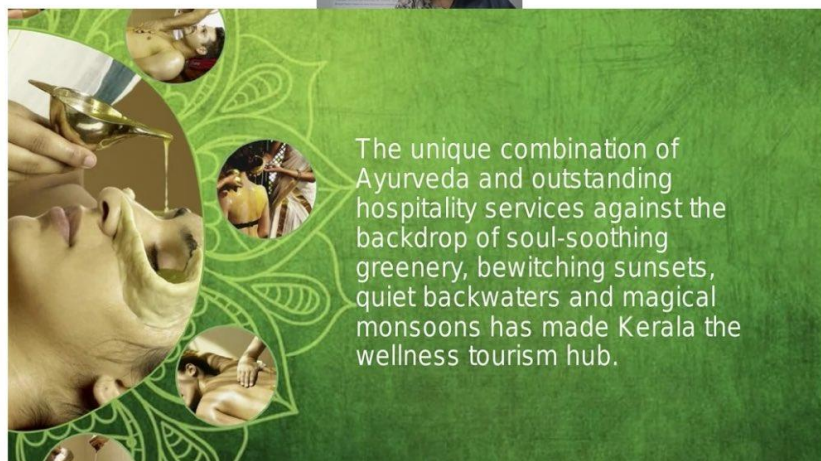

Observation of 5th Ayurveda Day
Embassy of India, Berne, Switzerland
13th November 2020

Geetha Krishnan GOPALAKRISHNA PILLAI
Traditional, Complementary, and Integrative Medicine Unit
Department of Integrated Health Services (IHS)
World Health Organisation, Geneva
email: gopalakrishnag@who.int

Observation of 5th Ayurveda Day

The unique combination of Ayurveda and outstanding hospitality services against the backdrop of soul-soothing greenery, bewitching sunsets, quiet backwaters and magical monsoons has made Kerala the wellness tourism hub.
